

for 8 years and my last 3 I was increasingly feeling dissatisfaction<sup>ed</sup> and unhappy because the fellows were being made into men who were ~~not~~ being made into men who were not going out to win souls to Christ and to show people how to grow in grace, but going out to argue about particular views on certain points. Most of which I <sup>thought</sup> thought were correct views, some of which I strongly disagreed with, but I thought the whole attitude was wrong to the point where I just could not have stood it to stay there any longer than I did. Then I <sup>helped start</sup> ~~got into~~ Faith and was able to direct the teaching and for 34 years I was never interfered with. Then/we had a fellow who came in who ~~quoted from~~ began quoting professors and taking them over to Dr. McIntire and twisting it and trying to show him that we were out of sympathy with the great work he was trying to do and got him to the point where he gives this fellow more or less free reign to try to bring things into the same attitude as the Westminster attitude only on a different issue. Oh, 'You've got to take our view right down the line or you are outside the pale.' So I hope that attitude never comes here, ~~if it does I suppose it will probably be still a third issue!~~

Neher: In this case it was a student, it came up from the students rather than. . .

AAM: This particular man, Kenneth Lee, ~~he~~ was a law graduate, a lawyer from the South, <sup>he</sup> and told somebody he was coming as a missionary to Faith Seminary, because he had found <sup>that</sup> some of our students were more interested in preaching the Gospel than they were in saying, Rah, Rah, Rah, Down with the NCC! ~~I didn't know that~~ <sup>He</sup> but he came into the seminary and took a 4 year course and gradually spread criticism and attacks and gathered students around him. At one time he had quite a group agreeing with him and ~~he~~ <sup>stirring up trouble</sup> eventually it got to the point where we just had to sit down on him.
