

1-8-79

page 18

good sound Christian teaching and turning out good sound Christian ministers for many denominations. And also turning out good Christian business men and leaders in various lines. And of those Christian colleges, three of four hundred of them at that time, -- you see there were a lot of new ones founded in recent years, but of those, I doubt if there are still 30 of them that are still Christian today. They were just taken over.