

its errors. Boy it was marvellous!" I was so ~~px~~ happy with that.

Incidentally I might recall that I wrote our treasurer, or spoke to him, I forget which, when there was a thought we might be able to get Dr. Buswell. I was quite young at the time, and I suggested to him I'd like to write a letter to Dr. Buswell telling him that I wished he'd come, teach with us and I would be very glad to step out and have him be president. The treasurer assured me it was not my place to say who would be president. That was up to the Board. But in addition to that he said, When a man has had trouble in an administrative position regardless of the circumstances, I don't feel it would be wise to invite him to another administrative position right away. They were very glad to get him on the faculty. For 3 or 4 years he taught full time with us and was very well received. When he'd been with us only been with us a little ~~over~~ over a year he came to me one day and said that there was a college somewhere out in Iowa that had some upset, and the conservatives were going to take it over and they were talking with him about his coming to be its president. I talked the whole matter over with him and he decided not to take that. Six months later the National Bible Institute in NY asked him to come. So I felt he just had administration in his blood. He had always ~~he~~ said he wanted to be a teacher, he didn't want to be an administrator. He'd been thrown into administrative work; he wanted to teach. He -- that was where his interest was, he said. But I think administration was in his blood. He took on the dean ship of this NBI in NY, took on the presidency and he used to come down several days a week and teach at Faith. ~~Even~~ That continued for a long time. Eventually he dropped out from Faith. Then when Covenant College was established they made him dean of the graduate school. So he was dean of their seminary
