

Paul Wooley said to her, She wanted to talk to _____ . He said, Do 't talk to him he's on the other side." She didn't know what they were talking about. But in the Board we ~~was~~ won by one vote. They elected 4 new members to the Board. So then we had control of the Board. There had been this criticism. Terry Whisacre was accustomed to drink light alcoholic beverages and he and three grads of Wheaton who came from premil families, and families which had been strong protesters before, these 4 were appointed to go to India. Dr. Stam raised the question. He was then head of the conservatory at Wheaton and a member of the Board, he raised the question about what Terry Whisacre was going to do as a member of the IBOPFM. Was he going to use alcohol? Drink beverage alcohol? They asked Terry Whisacre and he got up and made a very fine statement. He said, I've never seen any harm in drinking a little light wine, and don't see any harm in it now. But out of respect for the feeling of members of the Board, for Dr. Stam, and for the girl whom I now am engaged to marry, I will promise to refrain from the beverage use of alcohol." Dr. Stam said, I'd like to know what is the attitude of these other people who are going to India. I think the other 3 were grads of Wheaton. When they came to Westminster I'm sure they were strong prohibitionists and strong premillennialists and now they had all given up premil. That did not enter into the question there at all. They were asked this question, and I remember one fellow was asked will you promise not to engage in the beverage use of alcohol? I don't think he'd ever done such a thing in his life and I don't think he has to this day. He said, Certainly I will not! They were just conditioned to fight over that. The result was the Board voted--- they had already rented quarters in India for these missionaries, and the ~~board~~ Board voted to delay sending them
