up various things. I think he could have carried any one of them if he'd had his mind set --agreed before hand. But it was one of the few times I've know when he was just down on the proposal and had nothing positive in mind. The result was we had guite an interesting 45 min. dealing with that. In the end we adopted the thing.

The motion was that he teach Hebrew at such recompense as the Board shall decide. He said What recompense? What is that? It says, Such as the Board shall decide. It was silly. I've rarely seen him like that. But Mr. Armes had talked with DDr. Saville, and Armes said, We ought to do something about Dr. Saville. He said to me, Do I have to join the B.P. Church? Now, he said, If a man feels that way about the B.P. Church we ought not to keep him.
