

In Macrae's disagreement with which denies the value of evidence which was becoming dominant in the seminary, despite was resulting in an anti-intellectual attitude which would greatly cut down the effectiveness of its graduates for Christian thinking and evangelistic emphasis.

As a result Dr. MacRae and ~~Dr. R. Laird Harris~~ Dr. R. Laird Harris, a recent graduate of the seminary, already ready a man thoroughly trained in natural science as well as in theology; set to work decided to start a new school seminary to follow the lines of emphasis originally contemplated by the founders of Westminster. Forth thirty-four years Among the students who went with with the founding of Faith Seminary was Aftdr After tir thirty-four years of constant (?)

in which influence

[Faint, mostly illegible text, possibly bleed-through or very light printing]