(11) It set itself up to be as great as the Prince of the host; it took away the daily sacrifice from him, and the place of his sanctuary was brought low.              (12) Because of rebellion, the host of the saints, and the daily sacrifice were given over to it.              It prospered in everything it did, (cf. sec. 7)              and truth was thrown to the ground.	12 and take his stand against the Prince of princes.              13              14              15              16              17              18              19 Yet he will be destroyed, but not by human power.
