

be heard in the streest. It doesn't sound like them. You begin to ~~xxxx~~ raise a question about it. Is it the picture of Israel? Israel that put His hand to a task and does it well. You will find on almost any ~~xxxxxx~~ field, you will find Jews very active, and very energetic in accomplishing alot. But they don't accomplish it by ~~xxxxxx~~ slowly majestically, with full consciousness of power going forward.7 $\frac{1}{2}$lifting up their voice in the streets, and jumping into the thing, and making up for lack of waste, and perhaps a little more energy, and a little more push, which you will find in nearly every Jew.....7 $\frac{1}{2}$, but this doesn't quite sound like them. Israel is God's servant to do His will. This servan/t's work is going to be done, but is it all oß Israel, or is it some part of Israel that is going to represent Israel, that is going to do the great work that God' gives him. "A bruised reed shall he not break, and the smoking flax shall he not quench." He is not jumping in their with vigor, and jumping all around and trying to get this done, but ~~xxxx~~ majes/tically, and steadily, patiently, calmly, with the ability to watch out for the bruised reed, and the smoking flax, and give a little help and comfort, and attention along the way that is necessary. "He is going to bring judgment into gruth. He will not fail nor be discouraged." Patient, calm, and majestic progress will he ~~xxx~~ accomplish8 $\frac{1}{2}$ which you ~~xxxxx~~ can have when you know you have the power to accomplish the work. "He will not fail nor be discouraged, till h~~ave~~ have set judgment in the earth: and the distant coastlands, the isles of Greece shall wait for his law." His power and his influence shall go out very far away from the place where he started. "Thus says the Lord God, that created the heavens, God's omnipotence again, "that stretched forth the earth...the Lord has called thee inrighteousness." Who is he talking to? Is he talking to his servant, is he talking to Israel? Is Israel the servant? "I the Lord have called thee in righteousness, and will hold thy hand, and keep thee....for a light to the Gentiles." The work of the servant is to go forth, to lighten the Gentiles, to accomplish God's will for9 $\frac{1}{4}$"To open the blind eyes, and bring out the prisoners from the prison, and them that sit in darkness out of the prison. I am the Lord: that
