

God's explanation because when we look at the other side, we find that the other side of the world is one which is just as the wide we look at and as I say it is easy for us in a Christian community, or in a land with a Christian background, sometimes we forget this other side, but everyone of us will come face to face with it time after time in our own experience and it is good for us to recognize the fact that the world is simply full of that which is utterly inconsistent with the beauty and the grandeur of the loveliness which is so apparent in the world. Somebody asked the great skeptic, Ingersoll, suppose you were God almighty, how would you make a better world than God has made and he said, Well, in the first place I would make instead of and I think he had an answer which pretty well stumped them, because you see they saw it from the viewpoint that everything in this world is perfect, for if God made it, everything is perfect. Well, that isn't true, it is a good world, it is a wonderful world, it is a world in which we see God's hand <sup>on</sup> ~~and~~ every side but there is that in this world which is very inconsistent with it. It is a world of sickness and a world of misery, a world of death, a world of most senseless brutality and it is a world in which things move forward very very beautifully and then they just turn and go completely to ruin. There is that in this world which has lead some philosophers to take the viewpoint that everything is simply evil and that is the viewpoint of the great world religion known as Buddhism, their viewpoint is that everything is evil and what you want is to do to get out of the world proper and get away from it and Buddha felt, he was a man of wealth and he came of a very noble family and he had the opportunity for every desire and he tried this and that and the other thing and he found that he got sick of everything and it didn't work out and he saw misery in the world and finally he decided that it is all useless, there is just nothing valuable in it and according to the Buddhist story he gave up everything that he had and he went out and sat under a tree and tried to get over having any wants and his desier was if
