

antiChristian powers shall be destroyed."

Miner Raymond says in his "Theology;" "All Christians now speak of a Millenium in which they believe... That expectation is grounded on adequate evidence... All believe in a Millenium".

The Century Dictionary says, "Belief in such a period is universal in the Christian Church."

All through the Old Testament we find many passages which look forward to that glorious time. Cf. Isaiah 11.1-9.

Hab.2:14--For the earth shall be filled with the knowledge of the Lord as the waters cover the sea.

Many other Old Testament passages might be cited. But let us turn to the New Testament.

Here we will only take time to refer to a few of the passages:

Acts 3:19-21. Repent ye therefore, and be converted, that your sins may be blotted out, when the times of refreshing shall come from the presence of the Lord, And he shall send Jesus Christ, which before was preached unto you; Whom the heaven must receive until the times of restitution of all things, which God hath spoken by the mouth of all his holy prophets since the world began.

Rom.8:18-23. For I reckon that the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory which shall be revealed in us. For the earnest expectation of the creation waiteth for the manifestation of the sons of God. For the creation was made subject to vanity, not willingly, but by reason of him who hath subjected the same in hope. Because the creation itself also shall be delivered from the bondage of corruption into the glorious liberty of the children of God. For we know that the whole creation groaneth and travaileth in pain together until now. And not only they, but ourselves
