

superficially, and their difference from so Much apologetic discussion has failed to of creation rests on a faulty basis, because it fails to note the exact words of these commands. God is not pleased with superficial interpretation. If we fail to study His word with care, we can easily deserve similar rebukes to that ~~which~~ received by the disciples at the Emmaus road.

- ② very ~~How~~ different these commands are
- ③ from the words in verses 2 and 6: "Let there be light", "let there be a firmament", etc, and from those of verse 7, "God created man". Such words suggest instantaneous action.