

come a castaway. You can wreck your whole ministry by not getting any loan that you get as a voluntary payment thing instead of a forced thing and when you take the candy even if you intend to pay the dime later. It is the beginning of failing to keep the body under which can lead to one's becoming an (9 $\frac{1}{4}$)

I heard in addition that in where Marie has the ice cream, and there's ice cream placed which can be bought from her, but there's another part marked for the dining club only, that from that six slices of ice cream intended for the dining club had disappeared. That certainly is not a case of simply borrowing because no one has the slightest right to borrow from that. That is ticked for the dining club and no one has any right to take it except Marie or those whom she authorizes. I can't believe six different people came and took six slices of ice cream, it just doesn't seem possible. But if one did, that one is on mighty dangerous ground, to give way to that puts you in a position to give way to others, that can entirely wreck your life as far as serving the Lord is concerned. It can wreck your life and can raise a serious question as to whether you actually are his, whether you actually have belonged to him. /~~V~~/~~h~~

I heard in addition to that when the bookstore was open and no one was there, that ten ^{dollars} ~~volumes~~ have disappeared out of the cash box. Now we will trust that in that case, somebody had borrowed, but certainly no one had a right to borrow from anybody else, any more than you have a right to come up and knock me down and take something out of my purse, even if you didn't intend to repay me next week, I don't think that would excuse you aside (11)

We have no right whatever to borrow things without the full permission of those ^{who give.} ~~concerned.~~ And to borrow things that way can easily lead to the borrowing where there's only a very shadowy idea of giving back and eventually to borrow with no object of every giving back. And it can wreck your life and it can wreck the institution if it is not dealt with and stopped. You might say, if one person does a thing like this the rest should not be tattletales, they shouldn't tell about it, they should look the other way and say nothing about it. I think it's the most silly idea in America we have, that it is the worst thing one can do is to point out a criticism, I don't know where it started but it is a
