

in the O. T., 'imagine' twice, 'meditate' six times, 'mourn' four times, 'mother' (?) once.....14... once, 'speak' four times, 'study' twice, 'talk' once, and 'utter' twice. What a combination! (?) BDB says this word.....means moan, growl, utter, or speak. What a .....! I don't think meditate gives us a full understanding of the significance of the word ....., but I think 'meditate' is not a bad way to translate it in the context if you think of the full meaning of the word. It expresses that situation when you just can't help talking to yourself about it. You are just so filled with it that it just goes over and over in your mind. You don't sit down and say, Now I am going to meditate on the Word. The verse says, he meditates day and night. And so you go over it in your mind. You are thinking over it, you are pondering over it, you are like in the situation that everyone of us comes into when some great unusual, strange event comes to ~~pass~~ pass in your life. All day long you are thinking about it, hashing it over in your mind. You almost find yourself talking about it out loud. You do find yourself talking to yourself a great deal about it, not that is this word, ....., going over and over and over ..... to such an extent that it actually comes to expressing it in your speaking or in your uttering (end of side 1 of record)

0 - 2½ very bad.....And what is the result, in v.3 we have a wonderful figure for the Christian. He shall be like a tree planted by the rivers ~~the~~ of water .....3.....to delight in God's word, that is the source..... of feeding....he is planted by the rivers of water. He doesn't have to worry whether it is going to rain or not, or whether it is going to wither. He doesn't have to worry as to whether there'll be rain and he'll live or maybe he'll parch and die away because the rain has not come. He is planted by the rivers of water .....constantly there for him.....

He brings forth his ~~fruit~~ fruit in his season. I think if we just take this word.....I think in the English it can lead you to discouragement, "he brings forth his fruit in his season," are you bringing forth fruit? .....4.... You must be finding to some extent the peaceable fruit of righteousness in your life. You must be finding to some extent the joy of your salvation. You must
