

mind to judge the work of the infinite and to prove that every detail of it is true. It is a work from which we learn truth, not ~~a work which we~~ <sup>on that merely</sup> ~~are able to prove to be entirely true.~~ One can understand all that the Bible ~~teaches~~ Bible teaches about the creation of the world and still be lost. One can understand all that is taught about the Trinity and still be lost. One can understand ~~fully~~ the orthodox doctrine of salvation through Christ and still be lost. The primary purpose of Christian work is not to lead people to a correct understanding of these matters, but it is to show them their need of a Saviour, and to lead them to the foot of the cross where they can be ~~save~~ <sup>saved</sup> from their sins through the all-sufficient work of the Lord Jesus Christ.
