

he keep out of those things as a church man. But communism is absolutely different. Communism is a religion, a rival religion of Christianity, a religion which is seeking to get control of people's minds, and not only that but which is seeking by physical means to force people to give up all beliefs in God. Communism is a vicious force which Satan has raised up I believe more than anything else, in order to crush out the gospel of Christ. William10..... made a statement which is quoted here before the House Committee on UnAmerican activities, in which he said many10..... join the communist party who still had some religious scruples, or religious ideas, but a worker who will join the communist party who understands the elementary principles of the communist party, must necessary be in the process of liquidating his religious beliefs. And if he still has any lingerings when he joins the party, he will soon get rid of them. There are many quotations here in this paper. I was particularly interested in what it says about morality. There is strongly indoctrinated by communism a standard of morality which says that law, morality and religion are just bourgeois prejudices, that true right is doing whatever advances the proletariat class structure. Even truth is said to be simply that which serves the interest of a class, so what is truth for one class is not truth for another class, since they have different and conflicting interests. And this force is trying to soften us up, and to get means of undermining and taking us over, so that they can do here what they have done in China, what they have done in Russia, and in these other nations, ~~xxx~~ ^{where} they have liquidated 9/10 of the church, and where the other 10th they have ~~infiltrated~~ infiltrated with their communist secret police in order to make it an agent of the state in trying to advance their effort to conquer the whole world, and to destroy Christianity in the whole world. This last issue of TIME magazine, May 7 has an article on Religion, page 83, which speaks about East Germany, and it is very interesting to see what has happened there. I can well imagine that in East Germany there were many ministers, many of them godly, Christian men, who were dead against Hitler, had not use for his tyranny, and for his wickedness, and when
