.....and one time he was in ~~England~~ England, and he was telling about his experiences there, and someone says, Dr. Goforth, I think you would be interested in this, and pulled out a notebook, in which it told of the way this person had been praying, and told of particular days on which there had been a special burden of prayer for Dr. Goforth, and a special prayer that came right on the days of these ~~me~~ special great times of success, in the carrying on ~~the~~ of the work....1....

~~Shakespeare~~ <sup>Tennyson</sup> said there are more things wrought by prayer than this world dreams of. And there are more things wrought by prayer than we dream of, and there are experiences in every one of our lives if we are Christians which are wonderful answers to prayer, but there are many more which there could be if we were living the life of prayer that we should live. Well, then what we should need is to live the life of constant prayer, and life of unceasing prayer and that is ~~the~~ true. That is what ....1 3/4...

But why have a special day of prayer? Why have a special day? Why not pray ~~at~~ all the time? Well, there are two reasons. The first reason is, of course, that there may be special blessing, through a special ~~at~~ day of concentrated prayer, and that is vital, and it would be worthwhile during special days of prayer if there were no other purpose. But I think in addition to that that there is a very special reason for a special day of prayer, and that is the fact that there are great hinderances to prayer. There are hinderances that rise, that develop within us without our realizing. And these hinderances come to the point where we need something to open them up and clear them out, and the effectiveness of this day of prayer is that it is a special day of ~~the~~ prayer will not be confined to the prayer given on that day, but should continue on for months to come, perhaps for a life time, if the day of prayer has the effect that it should have. For though the great ~~the~~ purpose of the
