

look to Christ for salvation. So I hope that these two emphases that we've been able to get across; because I'm sure all four of us here from the platform agree absolutely in both of the emphases. But of course the most important is that the vital thing and the central thing is to recognize our lost condition in sin and our only possibility of salvation through Jesus Christ, died that we might live.

Now we'll ask Mr. Rao to close with prayer.

Our most loving Father we thank you for Jesus Christ our Lord and Saviour, the One who was willing to come down to this earth and die for our sins that we may be justified in the sight of the great God in heaven. We thank you, oh Father, that we know Him as our Saviour and that we wait with great expectation and hope that the day will come when He is going to receive us unto Himself forever. We pray, our Father, that thou wilt bless each and every conversation and discussion and presentation that has been made and that thou wilt use everything to the honor and glory of thy name. We pray, oh Father, that thou wilt prepare us for the day thou wilt come to receive us. We pray that thou wilt prepare us for tomorrow as we go into His services and worship with other believers. Grant, oh Father, that our ~~XXXXXXXXXXXX~~ faith may be strengthened and that we may be nourished to do thy will. In Jesus' name we pray. Amen
