

CHAPEL, 12/12/63

he a young American jump out from the back of this tank, and rushed forward and ran as fast as he could, and he got to the bridge, and escaped being shut, and I suppose by a _____ actually humanly speaking he ran, he got to the bridge, and he reached down ~~ripped apart,~~ and he pulled up the wire, that the people might _____, and knowing that of course he could not live, he pulled them up ~~so that~~ pulled them up. ~~But he got to the bridge, and~~ out so that the brake would not be drawn up. By the time he had them pulled up, _____ (11.50) tank was able to
But the American ~~went to~~ proceed ~~to~~ ~~ed~~ right across the bridge, and the German safe, tanks ~~retreated~~ further, and probably hundreds of lives were ~~save save~~, both the American soldiers and German soldiers, and ~~the Germans had to retreat further,~~ ~~and probably~~ also ~~of~~ French civilians, and the property of the people in the town was safe, and the ~~power-~~ people in the town was so grateful to this ~~man~~ that they wanted his wife and child to come over there to their honor, ~~of~~ the kept on writing and asking for, and made a monument of that man, and finally nearly ~~20~~ about twenty years, about seventeen or eighteen years after this had happened, Time magazine said, the arrangement was made, the widow of the man and her daughter went over to France, and were greatly honored by the French people, and they said, anything ~~that-~~ we have is yours, for we would not have had anything but for your husband, our town was saved, our lives were saved, and so anything we have we are glad to put out at your disposal. Then the article of the Time magazine said/ that the reporter _____ said, I can never be able to understand possessed of whatever/my husband was not the safe way to _____ to get out there, and _____ up there where he _____ go. Whether the widow really said that, or whether it was thought of the reporter, or what it was, I do not know, many times the but I do not think there ~~has~~ ~~be-~~ have been/in/history of the world before us where in