_____ like that which simply raises the question as to how a man could be so foolish as to let himself killed that way, when he might have ~~lived happily~~- come back, and live happily with his wife and continue his life.... It is amazing, it is one of the most disgusting things I have ever read, and I cannot imagine/that it would have been written, except for this which is ~~to~~ an _____ to the idea, this idea that anything as that ... we should simply lie down and let people walk over it, and that that is a Christian thing to do. The Bible no where teaches such a thing. I like what Mr. Dunzweiler said ~~the other day~~ in the latter part of his sermon. The Bible says we should pray for the rulers, and praying for them evil does not mean that we are praying that some wicked,~~king will a~~ man who is oppressing people, and doing all sorts of wickedness be unable to continue for a long time our prayer is that in his wickedness, ~~we are to pray~~ that the Holy Spirit by common grace may be-- ~~able to~~ use these people for good/ rather than evil, and that by special grace

He may lread them to know the gospel, and become Christian leaders, and as

Mr. Dunzweiler said, if ~~you~~ we pray, we should also ask and do anything that is within our power to promote righteousness and peace, knowing that a complete individuals peace would be by giving of the gospel, and reaching the ~~lost~~/for the Lord, and that is the greatest thing that can be ~~doe for~~ done for the spread of peace upon this earth. I think I read in the Saturday Evening Post about two weeks ago, I think
