

<sup>m</sup>
Just these last three years ~~great~~ literatures attacking the Word of God. I have here a book called, Hear the Word of ~~God~~ Lord, written by Nelley Nixon MacCarthur. It is the part of the ~~cov--~~ covenant life ~~curricu-~~ curriculum, ~~and it-~~ the authorized curriculum of the following denominations: <sup>Associate</sup> the ~~Scott~~ Reformed Presbyterian Church, Cumberland and Presbyterian Church, Moravian Church in America, the Presbyterian Church in the United States, the Reformed Church of America. When one thinks of how solidly ~~these churches~~ some of these bodies stood for the Word of God a few years ago, It is a tragedy that they should all adopt as a study book for their people this book entitled, Hear the Word of the Lord and the Holy Spirit, a book which sounds very pious, and ~~it~~ talks about God, and yet, there are just certain unbeliefs to knock the foundation out of belief ~~in the~~ dependability of the Word of God. <sup>For instance,</sup> Over here on page 35, we have inspiration. That ~~is a~~ word is used in a lot different ways. Of course, it is true. The word grip is used in a lot of different ways. You could say, the poor fellow, he has lost his grip, when a man loses his whole .... <sup>can</sup> But if you - If you lose your suitcase, someone will say, you have lost your grip. Or you can be sick and stay in bed, and somebody will say, you've got the grip. Or you can shake hands with somebody, and he will say what a marvellous grip he has got. How many different meanings there are in a word in English language. But if we are going to be intelligent we have to accept words in a particular <sup>area of</sup> science ~~of--~~ or thought in which it is used in that division of thought. This book takes up the word inspiration and gives all kinds of its uses for it, and then it says, as far as the Bible is concerned, let us look at two typical definitions of the word inspiration, which are held by people in the church. <sup>The final</sup> It might be called the urge to write.