

holden that they should not know him. I can understand what that means perhaps better than some of you could, because I have never been good in recognizing faces. It takes me quite a while to get to remember a face. I can remember names much more quickly ^{usa rule} than faces, and so if any of you have talked with me ~~an-~~ ^{a matter} discussed/with me on any occasion, next time you see me, please make yourself known to ~~k---~~ me, because I do not remember faces well. But in this case, these disciples did not recognize Jesus. Of course, they did not dream that Jesus would be there any way. And we read that they/ir eyes were holden that they should not know him. A stranger came up to him, and he said what manner of communications are these that ye have one to another, as ye walk, and are sad? And the one of them, whose name was Cleopas, answering said unto him, Art ~~he~~ thou only a stranger in Jerusalem, and hast not known the things which are come to pass there in these days? And he said unto them, What things? And they said ~~tu~~ unto him, Concerning Jesus of Nazareth, which was a prophet mighty in deed and word before God and all the people: And how the chief priests and our rulers delivered him to be condemned to death, and have crucified him!" ^{And ~~h~~ they go on and say,} "But we trusted that it had been he which should ~~ha~~ve redeemed Israel: and beside all this, to day is the third day since these things were done. Utterly disappointed. They never dreamed that ~~w~~ such a thing would happen. And yet, he had told them that ~~iw--~~ it was going to happen/ on various ~~l~~ occasions. "But we trusted that ~~it~~ had been he which should have redeemed Israel: and ~~l~~ beside all this, to day is the third day since these things were done. Yes, and certain women also of our company made us astonished, which were early at the sepulchre; And when they found not his body, they came, saying, that they had also seen a vision of angels, which said that he was alive. And certain of them which were with us went
