

went to the sepulchre, and found it even so as the women had said: but him they saw not." They just could believe in the resurrection. It just did not seem possible. Don't you think that if you were in his place you would have said now, I have explained all ~~✓~~ these things to you. Or if you did not make yourself known to them, you would have said, Didn't He tell you that this would happen? Don't you remember that day up there in Capernaum when He ~~✓~~ explained ~~that-~~ that day to you what was going to happen? Don't you remember ~~In~~ Caesarea Philippi? from Don't you remember when you were walking up the road ~~to~~-Jericho to Jerusalem? How ~~he~~ he stated all this? Now, he....

predicts that he will be crucified and that he will die for sin and then he will be raised from the dead. Now, many people have studied the Old Testament and had not seen, but I think that in many cases they simply read it ~~and~~ thinking of what they have learned before. Instead of reading it carefully ~~/~~ to see what they can get out. I think that many of us will do the same thing. We need to go at ~~it~~ it and ought not Christ to have suffered these things? Then he said unto them, O fools, and slow of heart to believe all that the prophets have spoken. A book like this one which MacArthur wrote, he picks out a few ideas from the Bible and he says these are what we should believe and then ~~/~~ this is what we should believe. He says, these are not so important. How do you know what to believe? Are you the judge of God's Word? Or is God's Word the judge of you?
