

His great work. And His great work begins ^{first} with finding the one who is lost. You notice how God comes? We read in verse 8. They heard the ~~the~~ voice of the Lord God walking in the garden in the cool of the day. Now, I submit ~~to you the~~ to you that everybody hears the voice or the sound of the Lord God walking in the garden ~~in~~ in the cool of the day. I was told about ~~it~~ an engineer who was an atheist and ~~who~~ ^{he} boasted that he was an atheist and he did not ~~he~~ believe in any god, and everything is just human nature, and we can just work it out with our own scheming and planning, and when we die we are dead all over. And he rounded a corner of an engine and all of a sudden he slammed on his brake and he saw of an engine on a truck coming straight before him ~~and~~ there seems to be no hope of deliverance and fortunately ^{both brakes were} ~~he~~ was able to ~~slam--~~ slam on it quickly ^{enough} ~~enough~~ ^{so that} ~~enough~~ ^{trains} they both ~~stopped~~ ^{but} and they saw the man immediately after he had his head bow and he was praying. He called himself an atheist, ^{but} ~~and~~ when it ^{comes} ~~came~~ to a crisis, there is no atheist. Everyone hears the voice of God walking in the garden in the cool of the day. We have read one of Daphne ~~novels~~ ^{novels} 's novels. I do not know whether we would have read it ~~or~~ except for the fact that we were required in school. ^{to read it, and} so we set to work to read it, and I knew nothing about her before. She pictures a man who is ^{very} ~~a~~ very selfish and ^{very} ~~arrogant~~ and there is not a word in the book anywhere ~~whether he is made fun of--~~ rather she was making
