

But out Lord speaks not of the austerity of holiness, not of the harshness of holiness but of the beauty of holiness. That which is is truly in line with God's moral law and consecrated to Him, has a beauty about it that in the end will be recognized even by those who defy it and deny it.

The Lord has sworn and will not repent. How wonderful it is that our God will not go back on His word. What he has promised we can depend upon. I don't say that what we have promised He can depend upon. Mr. Malsbury has mentioned the fact that there are students are well trained, thoroughly trained in the Scripture, who have turned in the wrong direction and failed to follow the Lord. Jesus spoke of the man who was asked to go, and he said, Yes I'll go and then he didn't. But when the Lord says something, we can depend on it. The Lord has sworn and will not repent. He has sworn about the Lord Jesus that "thou art a priest forever after the order of Melchizedek." One thousand years before the Christ came here we have the perdition of the world of the Lord Jesus Christ. He is not a priest after the family of Aaron but a priest after the order of Melchizeck.

The Lord at thy right hand shall strike through ~~kings~~ kings in the day of his wrath. He shall judge among the heathen. He shall fill the places with the dead bodies. He shall wound the heads over many countries.

People today talk about peace and co-existence. It's wonderful to have peace, but Winston Churchill said that the one who gives up justice for the sake of having peace, ends up having neither justice nor peace. That is always true. In this world where people are turning away from the Word of God and denying its truth, much as we would like peace, we know that what is ahead is not peace. We know that when man turns away from God, that God is
