

human nature. Can you think of anything more perverse than the attitude of ~~the-present--~~ ^{atpres-} present? has the President De Gaulle of France? After France ~~twice~~/twice in the two World Wars been preventing from being totally extinct by the forces of the America that went over and joined with the British and helped to rescue France from almost complete destruction, and let them millions of dollars, billions of dollars ~~not-after-~~, not asking for any return, and then at the end of the last war, when the nations of the West began to see that the Communists were determined to take over the world and they have taken over nations after nation in the Eastern Europe, and France ^{was} ~~is~~/next in line with a large ^{est} communist party of any nation beside the Iron Curtain, except Italy, the United States went in there and helped them to establish NATO, helped them to establish a system to protect France from the Communist takeover which was almost certainly come without it. But De Gaulle has his dream. He wants France to be great, and powerful and supreme over all the nations round about, and his greatest obstacle now to that now is the fact that the United States is so powerful and so he tries to take the gold away from the States ~~by~~ by maneuvering in such a way as to make it difficulty ~~fe-rue,-an-~~ for us, and he is always criticizing the Anglosaxons, and he is doing that which is so perverse, because the French people want to stand for liberty, and De Gaulle wants to stand for liberty, but he thinks he can have liberty and the United States will protect it from Russia and they can turn against both of them and make France the great nation. How perverse. How perverse it is. We can be grateful that De Gaulle is there, ~~or~~ The France might be an ~~na-~~ anarchy/ if it was not for De Gaulle. How perverse are his ragings today. Why do the nations rage? And the people imagine a vain thing? Well, the root of it is explained in the next verse. "The kings of the earth set themselves and the rulers take counsel together against the Lord, and aginst ~~to~~ his anointed." In some cases, it is not obvious, but in another case~~s~~ it is. It certainly is the case with the communists. Lenin and Marx said, religion is the~~s~~ opium of the people. And Linen was determined to wipe out the religion from Russia altogether. I believe
