

when He's coming, but He is coming for His saints, and all of us who believe/ in Christ, all who have turned from their sin and accepted Him as Saviour, all who have said, "I am a guilty sinner," deserving only eternal punishment, but Jesus Christ died on the Cross ~~that~~ that all who look to Him might be saved, and I look to Him, and turn from my sin, and take Him as my Saviour." = that all who have done that, and Jesus has come into their hearts, they will/ be raised up to heaven to meet the Lord in the air, at the time of the Rapture, and then, sometime later, our Lord will return to this earth and set up this glorious millennium upon the earth. Now, where will you be ~~when~~ during the millennium? Will you be with those who are left here when the Lord comes? Will you be with those who have ~~gone~~ gone on into perdition? because you have failed to accept Jesus Christ as Saviour? because you have sought ~~to follow~~ to follow your own sinful desires, instead of following His call to take Jesus as Saviour and Lord? Or will you be one of those into whose heart Jesus has come, who have believed on Him, and through Him have found eternal life? It's a mighty important present thing. "Oh," you may say, "it's just ~~interesting~~ interesting to know what will happen in the future. That's interesting. But this is immediate; this is vital. What you do now determines where you will be then. Have you accepted Christ as your Saviour? today? Will you reign with Him in the ~~next~~ millennium? Or will you be one of those cast out because you have stayed by your sin, and refused to take Him as ~~Saviour~~ Saviour?

Let us pray: Oh, God our Father, we thank You for the Lord Jesus Christ. We thank You that He is coming back to this earth, and that He will reign over this earth in power, so the nations can cease to learn war, so that they can beat their swords into plowshares because there's nothing to fear, because He rebukes strong nations afar off, and He rules in power and in glory. Oh, we thank You, our Father, for these wonderful promises, but, oh, our God, while we wait for His coming, help us to show many how they can be saved ~~that~~ through Him; help us to make sure about ourselves, that we truly have believed on Him, and been born again, through His precious blood, we ask in Jesus' Name. Amen.
