

that should have the primary place off into a secondary place. So after darkness, the terrible darkness that I had in college, the darkness that I faced in Princeton Seminary, the darkness of a different kind, yet a harmful sort that I faced in those 8 years, after darkness reformation! And I can't tell you how wonderful it's been. At Faith Seminary for 34 years, to be associated with men who believe all these doctrines, but who put their emphasis on the central fundamental doctrines of Scripture; men whose primary desire is to win souls for Jesus; men who give the prince of darkness no place in their lives whatever. After darkness reformation. We may not win the world to the truth, but we don't win it to the truth by compromise, by catering into that which claims to be Christian but is not. We need our institutions that stand foursquare for God's Word. Where we have in perhaps a small area, real reformation and we want to spread the reformation out, but we spread out the light and we spread out the reformation. The same experience that I had educationally, I had also in the denominational field.

Some have come into our church without much experience in other churches and perhaps coming in have expected to find a perfect church. And finding that the church has human beings in it! I often say, no matter where you go you'll find human beings in it. I don't care what organization you get into you'll find it has human beings in it, and the possibility is you are one of them yourself! But if you've had the experience as I had of being the member of a great tremendous church, a church that had a marvellous history, but a church in which the darkness had come in and taken over more and more.

I remember how shocked I was the first time I went to a dinner of a presbytery in Los Angeles. At this dinner they invited the people to introduce themselves. A man got up and said I'm the secretary of the Rotary Club and on Sunday's I preach in church. Another one said,
