

it would seem. When it said that the Lord hath sworn that the Lord will have war with Amalek from generation to generation this is not based simply on one event when the Amalekites ~~7~~ attacked the rear of the Israelites and did this treacherous thing. It is based upon God's knowledge of their future history and <sup>of</sup> the way in which that particular group would act during the years ahead.

I think that these thoughts are very important for us in our dealings with the Scripture. We must compare Scripture with Scripture. And when we have specific statements in the Scripture if carefully and correctly interpreted we can stand upon them and trust them, but we must not squeeze any one passage <sup>in such a way</sup> so that we do not realize the importance of bringing others in connection with it, and also the importance ~~of importance~~ of seeing, recognizing that there is much that we do not know.

I believe that the Christian's relation to Scripture is not merely a matter of accepting the whole Scripture but of endeavoring to put his emphasis where God puts the emphasis. And that which God stresses and deals with and makes plain and strong we are to stress and make plain and strong. And we are to study into other matters and dig into them and try to learn more and more about them, but our emphasis, not merely our knowledge, should be based upon the Scripture. - And so <sup>I think</sup> we have here/some important aspects in our attitude toward the Scripture, and also in our attitude toward the world in which we live.

And then No. 11 is the Establishment of an Organization. And here a system of organization was established. I won't take the time to read the Chapter. It was Jethro's suggestion to Moses that Moses choose men out of all Israel and make them heads over the people and that they should judge the people, but ~~g~~ bring their hard causes to Moses. Now I have here the -- a copy of the original, no it is called the New and Improved edition but it is the 2nd edition of the Scofield Bible which was issued in/1977/ 1917. The 3rd edition was issued about 10 years ~~ago~~ ago and I was <sup>believe</sup> one of the 9 who participated in the preparation of that. And I ~~believe~~ believe that a good reference Bible is a very valuable tool. And that godly men who helped ~~ppp~~ prepare
