

dreams and visions as well as the Lord, and in addition to that, our dreams and even ~~our~~ our visions often are the result of we've eaten, or what our situation is, or ^{of} some experience we've had. And so dreams ~~and~~ and visions are again a half-truth. They are not a major way of determining the Chn's course. There is an occasional time when the Lord for a particular ~~situation~~ situation wants a particular man in that particular ~~situation~~ situation, and He will use most unusual ways of bringing it about. Some years ago a very fine student in the seminary came to me and he said, "Dr. MacRae," he said, "I've just gotten a letter ~~from~~ from a man which I just don't know what to do ~~about~~ about." He said, "I have been engaged for two years." He said, "We are supposed to get married in another three and a half weeks." And he said, "I sent a card to this man, who," he said, "I was at a camp /and this man and a lot of his friends were there, and he said ~~xxxxxx~~ "I sent a card telling him I was going to be married in three and a half weeks," and he said "he's written me this letter. What shall I do?" ~~★~~ And I read the letter. And he said to him, he said, "Are ~~you~~ you sure you are doing the Lord's will in marrying this girl?" He said, "You ought to tell her to wait, and you come to our camp, which we hold next summer, ~~[three months off]~~ [three months ~~off~~] off] - you come there; there will be some people there who are expert in praying things through. And we will pray ~~it~~ it through with you and decide whether you should marry her or not." And he was very upset about it. And I said to him, "I think that you have taken a responsibility on yourself; you have taken up ~~two~~ two years of this girl's time, being engaged to her. You should think these things through very ~~thoroughly~~ thoroughly before you become engaged. You have a responsibility to her. Now, if you find something terrible out now, you certainly would be much better to break the engagement than to go on. But you certainly should be absolutely sure that it is a very tremendous reason to lead you to go back on your word that has been established for this
