

try to make that that was a fundamentalist ~~g~~ belief means (?) in religious things, if you look into almost any other line you will find that the people who do solid work, and ~~u~~ insist on the importance of that which is primary and fundamental, will occasionally be called fundamentalists in that line. It's a good ~~word~~ word. It indicates that we stand on that which is true, on the ~~basic~~ basic things, and so I like the word. I don't object to the word "conservative" but I ~~nk~~ always have a certain cringing from it because I don't think we want to be bossed (?) back and hold to something simply because that's the way it was done. Conditions change. I don't believe in the ~~Bible~~ Bible because it is an old book, or because my ancestors believed in it. I believe in it because I am convinced that it is God's Word, and because Jesus Christ set the seal of His approval on it as being His truth. And so let us try to get ~~us~~ ourselves organized and to organize our churches, to organize the different ways in which we work, and in which we live, because we'll save a great deal of time, and avoid a great deal of confusion, and accomplish far more than we would otherwise, but ~~us~~ let us always look out for a reasonable flexibility, and for constantly improving various aspects of our organization.

of the

~~IX~~ Now, number 2, under the Organizational March, we will call

2. The Names of the Leaders. The names of the leaders.

(not clear) I feel we should give this title because all these leaders are named again here, as they were named in connection with the census/, and they were named in connection with the gifts that they gave, the names of the leaders. We notice here that this reminds us of the fact that God has a record of our services, whether great or small. God preserves them in His Book of Remembrance. God does not forget what you do. If you are going to work for human recognition you would be wise to quit right now. It is a strange thing how much we all of us naturally long for human recognition. You can reach the point where you say, "I don't care a bit what people think about me. I am here to serve the Lord, what He thinks is all I care." And yet you sit in a group somewhere where they