

Suppose that the Lord should come right now. It is not at all impossible that He might come before I finish speaking. Suddenly those of us who have from the heart received Him as Saviour--those who have sincerely received Him into their hearts and have really been born again through the blood of the Lord Jesus Christ--suddenly every one of whom this is true will be caught up to meet the Lord in the air. Will you be one of these? Have you really faced this question and received Him as Saviour, or will you be left here to go through the miseries of the time of tribulation, when His wrath will be poured out upon the earth?

If you truly believe in Christ, will He find you watching when He comes? Or will He find you carelessly devoting yourself to earthly pleasures, simply satisfying the instincts of your nature, or vainly trying yourself to build the kingdom of God on this earth? May He find you watching, faithfully carry out His commands, using your time, your money, and your personal energy to do everything you can to witness to His grace where you are and also to the very ends of the earth.

Prayer: Our Father we thank you for the great prophetic teachings of the Word of God. We thank you that we know that our Lord Jesus Christ will surely return to this earth and set up His glorious kingdom of peace and happiness. Help each one to make absolutely certain that we have truly received Him as Saviour and Lord. Help us to be patient while He tarries, and to witness for Him on every opportunity. May He find us faithful when He Comes. In Jesus' Name, Amen.
