

have been made in recent yrs. But O our God the technology had advanced, human nature is still the same. Man is still a sinner, headed for eternal doom needing salvation. O our God how the world needs the message of Christ. Turn our eyes away we pray from the things of earth that would hide the things of eternity and help us each one to make our lives count for our Lord's purposes. In Jesus Name. Amen.