Of the 20 horns ....... and of the other which came up . . . .whose look was more stout than his fellows. I beheld that the same hom made war against the saints." liere over in the interpretation we have more told about what happened than before. "And pree vailed against them until the Ancient of Days eame." Certainiy yeu can't say Antiochus Epiphanes prevailei until the Ancient of Days cone. This is ne reference to Antiechus Epiphanes. This does not come out of the 3ril beast; it ewnes ont of the 4 th. It certainly must be a picture of Antichrist but we ars not told mach about it. Sa Antichrist comes in at this point. "And the same hom made war agasint the saints and prevailed against them until the Ancient of Days cave."

Dut then there is a further elegoription of it a littie furtiner on. Then he says the feurth beast shall be the pfourth kingdm and se on and vs, 24 - whe ten herns out of this kingdem are the ten kings that shall arise and anothor shall arise after them and he shall be diverge from the firet and he shall. . . wear out the saints of tho Nost 7igh and think to ohange timos and laws." "and they shall be diven untion his hanes until the times and times and dividing of times but the judgront shall sit and they shall take avay his fiditipg dominion . . . . and the kingdom and the dourinion and the greatness of the kingiom $\phi / / /$ uncer the whole hea ven shall be given to the people of the saints of the Most High whose kingdom is an everlesting kiagem and all eominions shall servo hia and osey fim." So we have now the Antichirgt three times rentioned in ch. 7 but net much told about him. Then we have after that this Sone without hands - it is representod in a very differeat way in ch. 7: Ch. 7 says in vs. 22: "Until the Ancient of Days ane and judgrant was given to the saints of the Nost Hight." Oe yes it's back in vs. 9 that it teels that in mare detail. He says: I beheld till the threnes were east duwn and the Anoient of Days did sit whase gaxment was white as snow . . . . . 2 beheld even till the beast was slain and lus body destroyed and given to the burning flame. ${ }^{n}$ Then vs. 12 and as
