

daughter go way across the seas, and in those days there very few planes and she might never see her again, and in fact she never did why she just couldn't do it she just showed That though she was a real Christian and she admitted just before her death that her daughter had done the right thing and that she had been wrong, yet <sup>when</sup> faced with that decision she found that absolutely it was her desire for her own selfish interest to have her daughter near her, rather than to do God's will and <sup>to</sup> advance what God wanted her to do.

2. Pray God to help you quiet your selfish thoughts and fears (R) If you want to know God's will in any situation, this I would say is an absolutely vital second point. Think of what you might give up to do God's will. Well ~~if it is~~ suppose it is four times as much, is it not worth it? Think of situations that might come if you do God's will in a certain way. Well imagine it goes five times as far, still if it is God's will are you not <sup>re. dy</sup> glad to follow His will? Pray God to help you quiet your selfish thoughts and fears.

3. Very definitely pray God to lead ~~in~~ in your decisions. Look to Him for guidance; not by one of these supernatural means. He may choose to use them, but ordinarily He does not. But pray Him to <sup>use</sup> use you as you think about the matter.

4. Look at all the known facts and consider their relative importance. God does not want robots. He wants thinking, intelligent individuals. He wants w those with whom He can have fellowship. through all eternity. He wants us to face problems and think them through. So He wants to consider the deeds of different situations. He wants us to consider where we can most effectively serve Him. He wants us to consider what our personal abilities are and what our outlook in fitting into situations. He wants us to consider these objectively. We may not be able to judge them ourselves. But we can look to others
