

But this is a temporary matter. It does not last. But we === What we will know in eternity is far beyond. Here we know in part, we prophecy in part. But when that which is perfect is come, that which is in part shall be done away. As children our ideas were very limited. "When I was a child, I spoke as a child, I understood as a child, I thought as a child; but when I became a man I put away childish things" He ~~a~~ says that when we come into His presence all we know now will seem like that. We will be many times as far beyond our present knowledge and understanding as we are now beyond what we were when we were children. "When I was a child I spoke as a child, I understood as a child, I thought as a child, but when I became a man I put away childish things. Now we see through a glass darkly." We have only a small intimation of things, and Oh what a tendency it is of human people today especially students ~~who~~ to take a few facts and they try to build a whole system of understanding of the universe about them. I wish somebody would go through the Bible ^{the way} ~~at~~ I'm trying right now to go through the prophecies of Dani~~el~~ finding what is absolutely clear and definite there and finding what there is there that may be so, there are various possible interpretations, and what there is we are not sure of.

I feel that it is just a human tendency, I don't care whether it is a Reformed view, whether it is a dispensational view, or what group it is, to take a few facts and then build a whole big system about it, and half your system may be pure immagination. Let's take the facts in the Scripture and let's stand on those facts and ~~we~~ know that there are thousands of things we don't understand, and alas those are the ~~p~~ things people fight over, and make divisions over so much - the things that they can't be sure ^{about} of because the Scripture is not positive on them. "We see through a glass darkly now." We see certain things definite in the Scripture, let's stand on them. But let's be charitable, and let's not be dogmatic~~a~~ on the things that are not stated with absolute clarity in the Scripture. God has given us certain definite duties in this age, certain definite things to stand for and let's
