

than we do simply for doing what God's wants and accomplishing His purposes. "Why do you spend your money for that which is not bread?" Why do we not put God first, not merely in our work but in all that we do.

"INcline your ear unto me, hear and your soul shall life, and I will make an everlasting covenant with you . . . " God does not say you come and say I accept Christ as my Saviour and now you are saved today and that is fine and tomorrow you go out and sin, and you've go to come all over again. He says, I'll make an everlasting covenant with you. You receive Christ into your heart and you are saved forever. Some of us the way we live, the way we put other things ahead of the service of Christ, it makes you wonder if we don't need to be saved over again. But those who have believed in ^{into} Christ, those/whose heart He has come, we are saved forever. But oh, we have an everlasting covenant and we should work that out in our lives. The sure mercies of David! Here is predicted this far ahead that David's greater Son would carry out the promises to Davie, the promises that make it possible that we should be saved and follow the commander of our salvaiton, David's Son, Jesus Christ.

"Behold I have given him for a witness to the people, a leader ^{truly} and a commander to the people." If we ~~truly~~ have believed in Christ, if we truly are a part of this everlasting covenant, wes~~w~~ould go we will go on to v. 5, "Behold I~~have~~ thou shalt call a nation that thou knowest not and nations that knew not thee shall run unto thee because of the Lord thy God . . . for He hash glorified thee." I have heard it said, If the church ceases to be evangelistic it will woon cease to be evangelical. If we truly believe in Christ we must be interested in reaching others for Him. If we truly believe in Him we can't be satisfied with simply reaching those near us. But
