

a person's abilities will dictate exactly where he should serve. Study your talents and abilities; God will lead you as you go along.

This necessarily means uncertainty regarding the details. But Paul said, "Be...understanding what the will of the Lord is." Surely he means that there are certain vital facts about the will of God which every Christian should know. Let's look at three of these.

(I) The first is brought out in John 4:34-36. [There we read, "Jesus saith unto them, My meat is to do the will of him that sent me, and to finish his work. Say not ye, There are yet four months, and then cometh harvest? Behold, I say unto you, Lift up your eyes, and look on the fields; for they are white already to harvest. And he that reapeth receiveth wages, and gathereth fruit unto life eternal, that both he that soweth and he that reapeth may rejoice together."]

Paragraph

The first thing that we can be sure about ⁱⁿ the Lord's will is that he wants every Christian to be one of His harvesters. "For the Son of man is come to save that which was lostEven so it is not the will of your Father, who is in heaven, that one of these little ones should perish."

full line

(Matthew 18:11,14) If I understand what the will of the Lord is, what will I be doing? I'll be doing everything I possibly can to reach souls for Christ, so that when I meet Him I will have precious sheaves with me. Paul had the same