

there in every land./are those who have~~x~~ been saved from their sins through Christ and whose lives who are entirely changed through what He did. "For the kingdom is the Lord's: and He is the governor among the nations." The stress upon the sovereignty of God. All this is a part of God's plan. It was God's way of working it out, so He could be just. He could be the just and righteous ruler of the world and yet He could deliver those who ~~x~~ had sinned and turned against Him and deserved nothing but eternal death for their sins. He is the governor of the nations. And we read above that the meek are to turn to the Lord. But they are not the only ones. This is also to reach some of the wealthy, some of the very wise, some of the leaders of the earth. And in every land there have been great leaders who have turned to Christ and been His. And so we read, "All they that be fat upon earth shall eat and worship:" those who are of well being, those that have leadership, not merely the meek, they shall eat and worship. And this reference is to eating. Isn't that strange. They are going to eat. Well, we read in the N.T./that ^{Jesus said} "except ye eat my flesh and drink my blood, ye have no life in me." We are to ~~px~~ partake of the benefits of His death on Calvary's cross, by assimilating Him into ourselves, by partaking in the communion as a sign of the fact that we spiritually feed upon Him. "The meek will eat and be satisfied. All that are fat upon earth shall eat and worship: all they that ~~x~~ go down to the dust shall bow before Him: " What a strange thing to say. All they that go down to the dust shall bow before Him.. We are told in the N.T. every knee shall bow eventually and every tongue shall confess ~~tax~~ before Christ to the glory of God the Father. In this life people can accept Him as Saviour and receive Him into their lives, or they can reject Him. But the time is coming when everyone must appear before ~~Him~~ the Judgment ~~af~~ seat of Christ to give account for the deeds done in their body and everyone will sometime confess that He is Lord and He is Saviour, if they have been saved through Him. He is the righteous Judge, if they have rejected Him. All that go down to the dust shall bow before
