

prophet when he criticized him for doing what he had urged him to do. But human nature is changeable and false. Put not your trust in men. Put your trust in the Lord, and though all the world opposes what you are standing for, if you are following the Word of God stand by it.

John Wesley went out and preached ~~XX~~the Word of God, and they hated him, they kicked him ~~XXXXX~~ around. They had riots against him. He had terrible experiences, and he went to the ^{miners} minors and preached the Word of God and lead them out to salvation in Christ. George Whitfield did the same thing. Geo. Whitfield died as a fairly young man. But Wesley lived to be an old man. Toward the end of his life Wesley said, I dont understand it; ~~all~~ those people that used to knock me now they are praising me° They are all speaking well of me now, and that is what is apt to happen if you stand for the Word of God. In the end people will admire your loyalty, admire your stand. But what matters is not whether the people like it or not; what matters is whether God approves and if ~~We~~ you get His approval what difference does the approval of human beings make?

The prophet sat there and must have thought, If this isn't really a shock! Here this man tells me to come back. He says an angel told him to tell me to bring me back and now he criticizes me for it. Who can you trust anyway? Well, who can you trust? You can trust God's Word, and you can trust human beings just as far as they are true to this Word and not a bit further. That means you can't trust any human being 100%. I've known people who have stood for the Word of God in a most wonderful way. Then Satan has led them off into byways, and somebody else has said, Well if you
