

November 30, 1944

Rev. John E. Janbaz,
34 N. Weymouth Ave.,
Ventnor, New Jersey.

Dear Mr. Janbaz:

In my last letter to you I told you that we would not arrive until 5:54 P.M. Saturday. This was based on information given me over the phone from the railroad company. I have now secured a copy of the time-table, and find that the young lady who answered the phone must have been a new employee who had not yet learned how to read time-tables. The table shows a train arriving there at 5:08, which I believe will be much more satisfactory all around.

We are looking forward with much anticipation to seeing you.

Cordially yours in Christ,

AAM:vm