

there is a higher one beyond Whatever accomplishments we make, there is more ahead that He wants us to do. We can do it only through His power. Only through the power of the resurrection of Christ and through the fellowship of Christ's sufferings, but He wants us to do it. Let us pray:

O God our Father, sin holds upon us. The world is every with us, but O, our Lord Jesus has overcome the world. The lust of the flesh, the lust of the eye, the pride of life -- not in themselves bad -- have become perverted until they are evil and will pass away. But O our God you have made a beautiful world, a wonderful world and you want your people to enjoy it. But you do not want us ever to fasten our love and affection upon this passing world, but upon Jesus Christ who gave His life for us. Help us each we pray to press forward toward the mark that you have set before us. Help us to do it through the power of the resurrection, and through the fellowship of the sufferings of our Lord. We ask it in Jesus' Name. Amen.
