

Sept. 21, 1981 All that is in the Word1

1. 1 John 2:15-17
'all that is in the world'. Meaning of 'all'
- 2 Ascetism
C. S. Lewis on perverted instincts
Meaning of the lust of the eyes
- 3 Covetousness
- 3 The Pride of life
- 4 'All' not to be taken in the universal sense
Col. 3:5-8
- 5 Sin of gossip
Heb. 12:3-4 Struggle against sin
Justification instantaneous, sanctification a long process
- 6 Psychology of being apt to find that the things we criticize in others are the very things we do ourselves.
The world not all evil
- 7 Lady who thought an ice cream sundie must be wicked because it tasted so good
- 8 Russian woman in World War II(or before it)
Accused of conspiring against the Soveit regime
Sent to Siberia
In the miserable conditions there she was enabled for a moment to forget her misery by a beautiful poem
- 9 Woman in hotel on fire. ~~Saw the woman~~ ~~with~~ Told to jump. Engulfed in the fire because took too long getting her things out
- 10 Jewels no comparrison to preservation of her own life
The resurrection power of God cannot be duplicated by humans
- 11 Always been afraid of pain and suffering
Experience with novacain at Dentists
- 12 Paul not asking that he may suffer
- 13 Jewish professor said Isn't it wonderful to teach in a theological seminary? Of course you would not flunk anybody would you