

and who fight against you and try to destroy your witness. You will remain. It is not our part to avenge; it is yours. It is our part to forgive. It is our part to show love and kindness. Help us to forgive even those who have dealt wrongly with us. Help us to show the spirit of forgiveness. But O our God we pray you will help us to grow; help us to learn your Word. To make progress as we should. Help us our Father as we go forward so to develop that each one of us in the days ahead may truly show forth the glory of Christ and may accomplish those things which are your desire for us.

We ask in Jesus' Name. Amen.
