

count. Help us to keep our objectives in mind. Help us so to run that we will obtain, and to keep our eyes on the goal. Help us we pray. As we look forward to years ahead, and as we think of the many we've known in years past and think of what they are doing now, seeing how ~~great~~ -- seeing how great work some are doing, and what great disappointments others have had, how often it has been the result of habits acquired or failed to be acquired in seminary.

Be with us during this semester and make it a time of real progress for everyone. We pray in Jesus' Name. Amen.
