

His kingdom of righteousness and peace, that Satan is bound for a thousand years but at the end of this time Satan will be loosed for a season, that Christ will destroy his power and then he will raise all the wicked dead and give them their final judgment. This is the essential of the view that is called premillennial. There may be various details of view on the part of different people but this is all that is essential in the view.

- - - - -