

The fact is we do not know to which
group Siseu belongs.

Not a Semitic name.

Unlikely Hittite

as yet No Hurrian parallel known

"We know nothing about the Philistine language"

So it might possibly be Philistine ^{although thinks it Philistine or Cretan} might be some other people
of whom we know nothing.

Siseu mentioned in Egypt - Neb among the Mitthintin.

Hard to say whether there is any connection at all.

Why not Semitic?

(1) Not like Semitic name
formations

(2) No root 700 known to us
in Semitic

The name cannot be connected with any known Egyptian name.
