

Which came first - Deborah, woman or Deborah, city.

More likely the village near Tabor was named after her.

(Albright, in early article, says the village was first [under Hempt's influence])

U. S. "The first part doesn't make sense, anyone will admit, but I don't think the changes make sense either".

2 cases where $\Pi 7 \text{ } \times$ is translated judge but one is of taking oath. Him and Thummim other refers to trial by ordeal

No regular use of $\Pi 7 \text{ } \times$ as judge.
(Suggested by Ewald)

Anyway not here an instrument for settling legal controversy, but would refer to selection of elders or similar leaders, as used here. So meaning judge unlikely.