

2. David has been considered <sup>as</sup> the chief author of the Psalms, in Jewish & Christian tradition

2 Mace 2, 13

Eccles 47, 8f.
etc.

3 many have considered him sole author.
see <sup>last</sup> next page.

4. This is not at all contrary to ~~what~~ the O.T. description of David ~~would~~ read Prob. O.T. 1535

a. Change of David very appropriate growth of religion poetry

reforms of Samson
freeing from Placatus
glory of his burden
Music and a place in life of Prophets 1510sf.