

(student talking)

MacRae: Yes, here we have three ~~things~~ cases where the word, two cases (unclear) (1 1/4) ...area of meaning is a very important thing, particularly (1 1/4)...on the interest that we have this word in Isaiah 26 (student) yes but what I'm thinking right at the moment is Isaiah 24:22. There, after many days shall they be visited. In that case, what all they be remembered would fit equally well. That is, after many days, attention is paid to their case. Does that help you in relation to the area? The paying of attention to their case? Is that a clue? Now let's look at this one again. What is ~~in~~ Isaiah 22? (Student: In trouble, and they visited me. Paid attention to me doesn't seem to fit either.

(and her student: maybe this idea, not only the idea of remembering but of doing something about it.

MacRae: Yes, in other words, the Lord remembered (2 3/4) do something about it. In trouble have they visited thee, poured out their and my chastening was upon them. They showed a marked change of attitude toward the Lord, in (3)

Student: What's the matter with (3) trouble that they remembered? That is, in their great trouble remember that the Lord is the one who can succor them from it.

MacRae: Yes, of course it's a matter of semantics.

Student: Yes, not only of remembering, but to submit to it.

MacRae: Yes. It's a matter of semantics. Our English word remember, they mean that something comes into your mind as has occurred at a previous time. Or it means that because your mind it pays specific attention to something which was previously in the background. O Lord, remember me. Does that mean, don't forget about me. Try to make your ~~mind~~ mind alert, that you will recall me. That isn't what it means at all. You mean, you say, here is a man who meets somebody that he hasn't
