

or can it come in without

In this case, of course ~~it~~ that particular question doesn't enter because you have your imperfect

so that it wouldn't make a perfect continuation (9 1/2)

Student (9 3/4): but it does not have a ~~wow~~ with ~~it~~ it.

MacR: But I mean does it represent, looking back. After the thing ~~is~~ is done.

(9 3/4)

Student: The perfect alone, inasmuch as it isn't a tight distinction could be completed action on the future itself, could it not?

MacR: That's right. It shows up, merely as something he will do, and something that will be completely done. Something which is ended (10 1/4)

Yes. Of course that's the process of events, which will make us of all people the

Ø (10 1/4)

Does that indicate causing the nation to drink the wine of his wrath? Or does it indicate the glorious good things of the body?

Student: It seems to be picturing a blessing.

MacR: What in it suggests blessing?

Student: The things that the Lord provides. Not merely the wine of wrath, but also the (10 3/4)

MacR: the words (10 3/4)

Then wine on the lees could probably indicate the wine of the wrath of God.

Student: Well, I can't adduce (11)

but ~~nowhere~~ I saw the expression that this was the old (11 1/4)

MacR: That interpretation fits in with the (11 1/4)